Adventure Island should not be considered a landmark. Its just a business on the seafront and not a landmark.

CHANGE TO PLAN

Remove Adventure Island from the category of Landmark

Visual attractiveness of buildings is "the fashion of the moment". I believe what appears to be a current visually blank building should be remain as it is as it because it represents what was considered fashionable in its time. Any alterations to a building façade should certainly not include decorative lighting as this adds to the energy consumption of the nation causing additional greenhouse gas emissions and additional light pollution.

CHANGE TO PLAN

Leave visually blank building facades as existing.
